“ Our condolences...and this thought penned by Charles Dickens which seems to embody what Gary has told us about his mother--
"Father Time is not always a hard parent, and, though he tarries for none of his children, often lays his hand lightly upon those who have used him well; making them old men and women inexorably enough, but leaving their hearts and spirits young and in full vigor. With such people the gray head is but the impression of the old fellows hand in giving them his blessing, and every wrinkle but a notch in the quiet calendar of a well-spent life.
