

Esther Lavina Stutesman

August 17, 1932 - June 4, 2010

Esther Lavina Stutesman passed away on June 4th at age 77. Esther was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. She leaves behind her husband Jack; daughters Terry Clauson, Sandra Yarnell and Jacqueline Loucks, and son David Stutesman; six grandchildren, and her brother Forest Bedell. Esther was born in Olympia, Washington in 1932, the daughter of Isaac and Alda Bedell. After raising her family and helping with grandchildren, Esther retired with her husband Jack and became an Arizona "snowbird" beginning in 1991. Esther lived life to the fullest, enjoying musical events, card playing, puzzles, reading and being with family and friends. She was the kind of person who never forgot a friend or family member's birthday or anniversary. Instead of a funeral, Esther's wishes were to have a Celebration of Life service, which will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens in Vancouver, WA on Saturday, June 19th, at 3 pm.
