“ Its such a tragedy to lose a great friend like this. And it may sound selfish but I wish I had more time with you. Your going to be missed dearly. I'm thankful we knew each other for all these years...you made me and everyone laugh and as I sit here I can smile even though your gone. My family sends their condolences to your family...you will be missed::(( Peace.

“ My heart aches for you and your Family for your loss. I only knew Ethan a little while but during the brief moments we shared with our visits at Pathways he definitely made me smile. He was such a funny young man and was a joy to be around. He will be missed by many. My prayers, thoughts and tears I share with you. My prayers go out to you and your family.
