ETHEL BERNICE ANDERSON February 10, 1931 ~ June 25, 2014 Ethel Bernice Tews was born and raised by her parents, Etta and Paul Tews in Heissen, Washington, growing up with her sister, Alice. She moved to Vancouver and graduated at Vancouver High School, where she met her high school sweetheart, Gary Gene Anderson. They were married on June 25, 1949, and built a house next to Gary's parents in Vancouver. She loved plants and spent many hours of the day planting in the yard. She also loved crocheting, faceting, and sewing. Her work resume included Jantzen Knitting Mills, Montgomery Ward, and Western Electric. She loved people and no one was a stranger. She will be truly missed by all who knew her. Ethel was a wonderful wife and mother, and is survived by her two children: son, Del and daughter, Judy; and granddaughter, Sara. Graveside services will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, on Monday, July 7, 2013, at 3:00 p.m. with a hospitality room following. Please sign her guestbook at www.columbian.com/obits.

“ My thoughts are with Judy, Delbert and families. I grew up with Ethel watching over us (grin) yelling at us often. My memories of growing up by all of the Anderson families are something I cherish.
