

Ethel Pauline Bussey

October 4, 1917 - November 26, 2011

ETHEL PAULINE BUSSEY October 4, 1917 ~ November 26, 2011 "She was an inspiration to all of her family and an example of how to live a good life." Ethel Pauline Bussey, 94, of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Nov. 26, 2011 at Ray Hickey Hospice House after a brief illness. She was born in Pueblo, CO to Robert and Ida Mae (Dempey) Burns. She moved to Vancouver with her husband and son, Delbert Jr. in 1943. She worked for Jantzen Knitting Mills for 34 years, most of them as quality control supervisor. She retired but for many years enjoyed meeting with the Jantzen retirees for lunch. She was preceded by her husband of 67 years, Delbert F. Bussey Sr. After Delbert's death in 2008, she continued living on her own despite her severe arthritis, enjoying daily visits from members of the family. She loved going out to eat and being with the family. Her mind was sharp as a tack and besides doing daily crosswords, she was the family "newsperson". She kept very busy at home feeding the squirrels and birds. Ethel is survived by her son, Delbert F. (Linda) Bussey, Jr.; grandchildren, Kari (Fred) Proctor, Stu (Karen) Bussey; sister, Gertrude Shaver; great-grandchildren, Daniel Proctor, Taylor and Brendan Bussey; and extended family members, Stephanie and Michael Farrell and Todd, Lisa, Chris, Elizabeth and Evie Linderman. A funeral service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on Thurs., Dec. 1, 2011 at 12:30 p.m. with a viewing on Wed., Nov. 30th from 12:00-9:00 p.m. Memorials may be sent to the Ray Hickey Hospice House.
