

Eugene A. Nordstrom

December 30, 1939 - February 12, 2019

Eugene A. Nordstrom, 79, died at his home in Vancouver, WA. He was born in Portland, OR to Eugene and Kathleen (Peterson) Nordstrom.

Gene earned a Bachelor of Arts from Whitman College, a Bachelor of Sacred Theology from the University of British Columbia, a Master of Social Work from the University of Washington, and a PhD from the University of Southern California.

Gene met his wife and love of his life, Barbara Woolsey, on a cruise to Alaska in 1970.

For 30 years, Dr. Nordstrom was on the staff of Kaiser Permanente as a clinical psychotherapist and served as Associate Chief of Mental Health, Kaiser Northwest Region.

Since retiring, he authored and published four novels.

Gene is survived by his wife of forty-five years, Barbara, and son, Eric.

A Memorial Service will be held on Wednesday, February 20th, 12:30 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave., Vancouver, WA.

Donations may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital or William Temple House.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ We were neighbors of Gene and Barbara moving across the street in 2004. Gene was a kind gentleman who always had a twinkle in his eye and a smile that would light up your day. He always looked after us from his front window, going so far as to call my wife whenever I got on our roof and tattle on me, such that Cyndy would come out and keep an eye on me. Barbara moved to Salmon Creek about a year ago and sold to a wonderful young couple who are also great neighbors. We miss seeing Gene and Barbara but can take some solace in reading one of the several books we have written by Gene. We think of you often and miss your wit and wisdom. Love both of you, Jim and Cyndy Hallar

James J Hallar - July 26, 2022 at 12:00 AM