“ Today is a day I'd be headed over to see you and spend the day, I realize I can't and that makes me sad, I wonder what your doing at this very moment, playing cards, laughing, whatever it is, I know it's better than what you'd be doing here on earth. SAD for me here on earth, rejoicing for you there in HEAVEN.

“ To a beautiful woman whom I had the pleasure of meeting, thank you for your kindness and fun times full of laughter. You were a blessing and your family will always keep you alive. May you rest in piece.
