EVELYN MAXINE (MASON) WELLMAN June 26, 1920 ~ June 26, 2014

Evelyn Maxine (Mason) Wellman of Battle Ground, Washington, passed away of natural causes at her home in Battle Ground on her 94th birthday. Maxine was the daughter of John Lewis Mason of St Helens, Oregon, and Edna Viola Parsons Mason Schmeltzer of Washougal, Washington. She was preceded in death by her husband Robert A. Wellman. She is survived by James and Patricia Wellman, Susan and Bill Hoeske, Sally and Edmond Hart, and Robert and Tamara Wellman. She is also survived by twelve grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren. Maxine attended Washougal High, where she met her high school sweetheart, "Bob" Wellman. They married just after her graduation in 1938. Together they braved WWII, and four healthy children who know that their mom and dad are together again in Heaven. In 1959, Maxine starred as Mame Dennis, in the stage play, "Auntie Mame". It was the thrill of a lifetime for her, winning her many rave reviews in town that year. She enjoyed crafts, camping, fishing, crosswords, happy hour, and most of all, reading. When God created Maxine, He created a loving character who will be greatly missed by her family and friends.
