

Fabian G. Rosales

February 19, 1979 - August 26, 2016

Fabian G Rosales was born February 19th, 1979 in Kennewick, WA. He attended Evergreen High School from 1994-97 where he received numerous awards and accolades for community volunteerism and advocacy. He spent many years as a server in Vancouver, WA where he was most proud of his time at Shari's, Byno's, and Big Al's. He is survived by his best friend and mother, Lupe Rosales; His father, Pat Rosales; and his brothers Alex and Andy Rosales. His legacy will be one of bringing laughter and happiness to everyone he met and a life-long demonstration of how we should all treat one another. He will be truly and deeply missed by all.

“ Oh Fab I am so sad for us all! You loved your mom so much and that impressed me. I was not only your health inspector but your friend. I so enjoyed seeing you and your smile. You were so serious about food safety and you are up there making chocolate covered bacon or something off beat and delicious! Thank you for the Fab chats and the laughter. Hugs to your family! I'm so sorry! PS I made it to Hawaii. Aloha Hui Hou dearest Fab!

“ IM SO BLESSED TO HAVE MET THE FAMOUS FABS, THERE WAS NEVER A DULL MOMENT WHEN YOU WERE AROUND, YOU WERE THE LIGHT OF THE PARTY, ALWAYS HAD A HEART OF PURE LOVE FOR ALL YOUR FRIENDS. You are one of a kind and there are no words to describe you to anyone. They just have to know you to be able to know how special you were. God needed another angel and he called upon his child and took you away,i know you are starting your new journey in life up there and you are At peace for once. Shine bright like a diamond girlfriend,and i will see you on the other side when it's my turn to be called upon. Until then my friend, watch over us. I LOVE YOU FABS. XOXO
