“ Sharon, I have watched you & Floyd mature over the last 51 years raising your 4 children. He was a wonderful father and good provider. He was always there for his kids, no matter what the problem was. He was like a 2nd son to me, always ready to be Mr. fix it when things started falling apart. when the two of you joined Life Point Church and became greeters I could see the spiritual growth in the two of you as a couple. It warmed my heart so to see it. Floyd had a wonderful Smile and a giving heart. He will be truly missed by all. My Love and Prayers are with my family. Love Mom

“ Yo yo pops well it's your grandson #4 in 1st place...just wanted to say a lil something for ya.... I think about you all the time everyday on the rails at work in the car driving down the road.. I couldn't explain the first time I went out to the farm and I was waiting for you to come out of the barn and say well when they let you out with your smile and a head nod..... I had to sit in the car for a little bit cause I pictured it as I seen it... You don't understand how happy it makes me to tell people that you are my grandpa of all the story's they tell me or what I get to tell them.... Well we finally won a race for you last time out pops that's for looking over us and pushing us around the track :) i knew you were there pushing us threw.... Well gramps I just want to tell you I love you and want to tell you thank you for everything you have shown me and taught me in my life.... I love you more then everything..... Love your Timmy gean

“ Hey Gramps,NEVER did I think I would be writing you to say goodbye. Your my gramps! The one I listened to, every word. You are the meaning of ACTIONS speak louder than words. You will always mean the world to me and will always be grateful I had you & grandma to teach & guide me through whatever was going on in my life all these years. I love and miss you so much. Your great grand kids will know you through our memories. You will never be forgotten & don't worry about the Farm, I will help grandma take care of things. Love Your #2 grandson

“ Hey Pops Just wanted to say I love you & miss you every day. There are so many memories I could write if I had time. I couldn't have had a better role model, father figure or Friend. You kicked my tail when I needed it & praised me when I deserved it. You've helped guide & show me what it takes to be a good man & father. You've always treated me like one of the kids. In the good or bad times you & mom are the only constant people in my life. I remember sitting in the living room watching WALKER talking about my problems w/ my dad. You told me FAMILY is most important FIX IT. So I will. Your words, wisdom & strength have helped more than you know. Me Mike Arnie Jason & Brad put the wall up. TEAM WORK as Mike puts it. It is, was & always will be an Honor & Privilege to call you Dad. Say hello to my grandfather for me. Love you

“ I can remember back over 20 years ago seeing Floyd every week at the Portland Speedway. If he wasn't racing he was in a Push Truck. He always had a smile on his face and never forgot to say Hi with a handshake. He was a good man who tried to help everyone. We lost a good man and heaven got him. He will be missed and remembered with a smile.

“ To the most wonderful family and friends any person could have or pray to have. It took everyone I know and Love to make it this far; Of course it's the Holy Spirit that Lives in me that says, "BE STRONG AND FEAR NOT" I'm not there yet, But buy the Grace of my Lord & Saviour I will make it; just because the Love for my husband "FLOYD" only grows bigger & stronger every day of my life. “ Grandpa Floyd, You were such and amazing man and grandfather the last five year I have been truly blessed to be apart of this family and I will cherish and hold on to those memories forever, We will raise our boys to be good men and when you look down on us you will be proud. I will always remember the last time I saw you and how you looked at me with disbelief that I was actually there, as I held your hand and told you how much I loved you. It saddens me that you never got to meet Bentley Floyd he is such a happy little baby and we named him after you so you will always be with us. He stairs up at the ceiling and we ask him him "you see Boppa" and he always gets a huge smile on his face. I love you and will never forget the love you showed me..

“ Dear Case Family, Sometimes life is hard to understand. We face challenges and obstacles that were never in our plans. Yet we can trust nothing is a surprise to God. He's there to walk with us each step we take, Holding our hands, guiding us to all the Good HE has for our lives. His love will be with us wherever we go. Floyd will be remembered with that wonderful smile & great handshake. Love & Prayers

“ Dad, I thank God everyday for You & mom. You were my mentor & I miss seeing You when I would come out to the farm todo something in the shop! I thank God everyday for the miracle he has done in Your body. The work ehtic that you instilled in me @ a young age has made me the person I am today! When I'm running,I wonder why everything came on at the time it did in your health, but We'll find out when we get to see you again. The kids and I will do what we can do to make sure mom is taken care of. Dad,the last thing You said to me was, what are we going to do, I told You, we have to give it to God.Ya see,in every event or task I was doing, I would hear those famous words. I get emotional whenever I think about that moment in the hospital, We will always be a team!!!! I'll never stop saying "that's My Dad"! IM checking out for now, some of the boys & I are going to finish putting up the wall on the shop. Ilove You, Wayne

“ Floyd, When I first met you guys, To my recollection I was like 4 years old. Danny O'neal Sr, and Floyd were in California when their car broke down, So they had to stay at our house. I remember Floyd and Sharon Visiting when Vickie was just a baby. I had no idea at that time I had no clue that Floyd was my brother. As well as those memories, I have many many memories. I have enjoyed getting to know you guys as my family. I will always miss Floyd his positive attitude and high energy. Another thing is I will miss being at church with you. I now go to a different one, but life just wont be the same. I love you and can't wait to see you in Paradise forever after.

“ I Loved Butch very much and was very Thankful he came to visit me at the Cascade Inn Care Center every Wednesday for dinner. I'd know when he was walking in because I could hear that wonderful whistling. He could whistle any tune so beautifully. Butch and Patty were so close as they were growing up. I remember one time when Butch & Danny came to visit, Patty & Butch went off to play and I found Danny out behind the tool shed singing I'm a lonely little patunnia in the onion patch. Well, I have alot of wonderful memories and am very at peace knowing My Butch is in Heaven with all our family members.

“ Your Loved one is shining like starlight above you that comes from a place without sadness or pain. Your Loved one is with you in each tender moment, in each brush of breeze, in each sweet drop of rain. Wherever we look, there are gentle reminders that those whom we love never truly depart. Your Loved one is closer to you than a sunbeam, as near as your memories, as sure as your heart.

“ Sharon and Family My heart is breaking for each and everyone of you! Floyd will be missed! I bet he is in heaven sharing his smile, love and stories! GOD SET ME FREE Don't grieve for me for now I am free, I followed the path God laid out for me. I took God's hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Task left undone. I found God's peace at the close of the day. Perhaps this time seems all too brief. Don't lighten it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me. GOD WANTED ME NOW! GOD SET ME FREE!

“ To My Wife (Glenda) on our 51th Anniversary, I wonder if you really know what a wonderful woman you are. I've told you far less often than I should. It's hard to find the words to say all the things you deserve to hear. If I could say them perfectly, I would. I'd tell you justt how much it means to be given the gift of your LOVE and how that love has changed me for the better. I'd say it takes a Wife like you to reveal the soul of a man, If he can open up enough to let her. It may be that there are NO words to THANK YOU for all that you've done to support me and create the life we share.... But should you ever feel unsure of the love I have for you, just look into my eyes. You'll find it there! I Love You, FLOYD VELTON CASE

“ Sharon, words cannot express the sorrow we share with you on the loss of Floyd. LifePoint will never be the same after losing such a warm & funny young man. Floyd was always a site for sore eyes. We'll never forget his grand and genuine smile, his eagerness to listen, and his wit that brought us laughter and joy each Sunday morning he was at the door greeting. We could just see him now, chuckling and elbowing angels while he entertains them in heaven. There will never be another Floyd ... God broke the mold after making him. Floyd will always be in our hearts and thoughts as will you. We're praying God's comfort upon your life. We love you! Know that we are here for you...

“Floyd always greeted us with the "Hi, how ya all doin today?" His firm handshake and teasing were part of him making us feel welcome. We looked forward to see what Sharon had chosen for them to wear that matched. Buzz would drive in at an angle when dropping me off to look like he was going to drive right into the church to try and get a rise out of Floyd. He'd usually have something to say about it. Floyd would always make people feel welcome. He was a good example for other greeters at the doors. We surely do miss him.

“How Dave and I love you and your family! We will miss Floyd so much. He was always a joy to be around. His laugh, His smile, and the way he worshipped the Lord all are pleasant memories we will always hold dear in our hearts. He was so generous in all he did. We will always remember the way you, Floyd and your family reached out to us in our time of need. Love like that is forever cherishable. A special Thanks to Floyd who let his light shine by his good deeds and great love for Jesus. We will miss our brother Floyd. He was one in a million. Be encouraged that all of your memories of this great Father, Husband and child of the King of Kings Is now living in heaven with the Lord of Lords. He has no more pain and no more tears...he is resting in the everlasting arms of God.

“ May the promises of God keep you moving forward. He is your shelter, your peace, your joy, your comfort and your provider. Trust in the Lord with all of your heart, mind and strength. May the word of the Lord remind you...you are so special to him and he rejoices over you with singing. So great is His love towards you. He will not fail you. He will sustain you and be your ever present help. Cast all of your cares on Him...for He cares for you and He will never leave you or forsake you. Hold on my child, Joy comes in the morning! Poem: by Josephine Currier May these words be a comfort to you. All day long the birds are singing Sweetest songs that seem to rise From their tiny throats far reaching, Even to the distant skies. Then at night they rest securely, Nestled close within their nest, And the Father safely watches Every little feathered breast. Likewise we when night approaches, Lay our weary heads to rest, For we know that God will watch us as He does the bird's wee nest.

“ The weary wind gave up and spoke, "How can you still be standing, Oak" The oak tree said, "I know that you can break each branch of mine in two, carry every leaf away, shake my limbs, and make me sway. But I have roots stretched in the earth, growing stronger since my birth. You'll never touch them, for you see, they are the deepest part of me. Until today, I wasn't sure of just how much I could endure. But now I've found, with thanks to you, I'm stronger than I ever knew." Especially now, try to remember that you're stronger than any problem you encounter or any disappointment life will bring. I love you Auntie

“ We just want the family to know the greatest quality we saw in Floyd, was his joy, warm smile and bearish hugs. His twinkle in his eyes, good natured bantering and welcome home spirit are now being used at the door to heaven. You are missed by many. For the family our sorrow has turned to joy know where he is and knowing he will greet us there some day. Love to you all and prayers as the days pass, and a new journey of life lays before you. The same faith of yesterday's will strengthen you on this journey.

“ I have know the case family for over 20 years. Floyd I will never forget your smile, your laugh, and even the loving advice you gave as needed. You were so much like my father, you put God and your family first. I will always remember you with love and great respect.

“ I have not known Floyd as long, only a couple of years, but I have found that his laugh and his sense of humor has always been a blessing whenever I came to church. Hearing his wonderful greetings to everyone, even from out in the parking lot, I always knew I would be blessed to greet such a man as him.

“ Gramps, I will miss you very much. Thank you for all you have done for my family. Having you step in for Chris when he couldnt be there for Father's day for Abby meant the world to us. Things will not be the same without you, but we will see you again in Heaven. We love you and will make you proud!!!

“ Floyd, You are truly my man & I am your women for 51 years. At times we struggled, we loved & we worked through the good & bad times. We together worked at raising four kids, working two jobs, racing, and sitting on a sports bleacher. No matter what idea I had, you made it come true. We always took your ideas and put them on the back burner. I'm SO SORRY!! We decided to make God Lord over our lives and family. Then things became better, we could do all things through Jesus Christ. We truly became one together. From 1962 to 2013, it became Floyd & Sharon or Sharon & Floyd, two lives became one. When you became very sick, very fast & very weak, I felt I was losing my best half. I didn't give up as you wouldn't give up. On May 19, at 4:45pm you went on to Heaven holding Jesus' hand; I will always be your women and you my man. "

“Dad, For the last 5 years(2.5 months married)you have expressed family values, shared your amazing smile, showed a sense of humor that only you can claim, a love for God, what it means to give & to give for the right reasons, & to never give up! I am so blessed that God brought Arnie & I together & that I will always have a part of you with me, not just the memories, but the morals, faith, & love that you instilled in my husband, your son, & with that he is teaching that to our children. I miss your smile, your laugh,your handshake, & your hugs. Our family gatherings just aren't the same without you, but I know that we will be together again as one family. As much as my heart breaks because you are not here on earth with us, my heart rejoices because you are standing wtih our one & only Father! As we all gather around to celebrate the life that you led, the legacy you left behind, & the memories that will fill our hearts, know that we love you & that you will forever be missed.

“Floyed was my father in law and I have known him for 11 years. He was like the father I never had and my only wish I had known him earlier in life. He was always there when you needed him. He set a great example to me and for others by the person he was and is. I will miss him and I know that he is home with Jesus and we will see him again one day.

“ in the six years that I have been involved with the Case family Floyd has had the biggest impact on me. I see the way that he is with his family, and that is exactly the way that I want to be with mine. He is a great father, awesome grandpa, and there is no better great grand pa for my kids. The love he showed for god, his wife, and anybody else that has ever talked to him was impressive. from his smile, to his sense of humor, and family values I know that there will never be another Floyd. I will miss him, and do everything that I can to make him proud of the way I am raising my family in gods spirit. I want him to no that his grand daughter and great grand kids are in good hands because of what I have learned from him. He will always be loved, and my kids will always know who he was, and what kind of man he is.

“ Sharon, we both were so sorry to hear about Floyd. How years go in circles and come back. With racing all those years and not seeing you guys for years. Then the last few years of get together's,lunches or dinners with Sandy,Theresa and you two was very enjoyable. As a person of faith you will survive the lose of your friend and husband as God will walk with you in your time of need. Our prayers and thoughts go out to you and your family. Lyle and Lucy Huber

“ To my loving grandpa! You are my rock and my father figure that I have had for 28 years, especially the last 3 years. I feel very honored to have had an amazing man walk me down the aisle and give me away to the man I love unconditionally. I know you are in a much better place but I don't know how im going to get over not having you here. If one word described you it would be "smile" your infectious smile is all I see in my mind! I loved walking up to church seeing your smiling face and hand out. I love you soooooo much grandpa from my memories as a little girl to holding your hand as you took your last breath. Im glad my children got to be with for as long as they did and all of them love you so much, even LEROY! You touched everyone's life that you came in contact with and NOONE will ever forget. Don't worry we will take care of grandma. I Love you and please save room for my little family up there next to GOD! Until next time

“ The first time I saw "Grampa Floyd" we were at a party that Vicki set up for my daughter Tina. When he walked in the room I wondered who was the handsome man that had a wonderful smile. Tina went right up to him and called him Grandpa. I knew then he must be Vicki's dad. The next thing I thought was, if I was not married I would hit on this guy. The way he carried himself and seemed to be so friendly to all the kids in the room. I later learned that he was the un-offical Grandpa to many kids. I used to hear about all the great things he was doing, helping all his kids, and grandchildren. He seemed to know how to do everything. I learned about his deep faith, no matter what happened in his family, good or bad he stood by them with love and faith that all will work out. I think that Vicki, her mom and family were so lucky to have a man like this for a example to live by. Your family will miss you but you have left them with the knowledge and love to carry on. Love, Carol

“ As your daughter in-law of just seven years, my time to know you was short. I wish there could have been many more years ahead. But in the short time I've known you, there are some things I can say for sure that I will remember you by.... 1. Your love for your family. Whether it was a small family gathering or one with everyone there, you radiated joy when family was around. 2. The selfless ways you cared for others and put their needs before your own. If it was something for one of your kids or grandkids or someone in need at church, it did not matter, you were there to help with whatever the need. 3. Your strong work ethic. Whether driving truck or working on something at the farm or helping Mike with a project at our house, you always gave 110% in everything you did. 4. Your infectious smile. It was impossible not to smile around you because your smile was contagious. Just as your smile could light up a room, I'm certain it is lighting up heaven right now.
