FLOYD LORENZO HEBDON November 5, 1933 ~ September 22, 2011

"Floyd was a loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather."

Floyd Lorenzo Hebdon, 77, of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Sept. 22, 2011. He was born on Nov. 5, 1933 to Edward Hebdon and Ella May Auger. The youngest of 11 children, he was born in Preston, ID. He served in the Korean War as a United States Marine and retired from the Union Pacific Railroad after many years of service. He enjoyed fishing, golf, collecting coins and making people laugh. Floyd is survived by his wife of 59 years, Thelma (Barkdull) Hebdon; sons, Kelly (Diane) of VA, Mark of Woodland, WA, Corey (Terry) of Vancouver, WA and Robert (Kathy) of South Carolina; along with 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. The family would like to thank the medical staff at Legacy Salmon Creek ICU for the amazing care and compassion for Floyd and the family in his final days. Services were held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Mon., Sept. 26.

“ Hi all, sorry that I can not come. We are in apple harvest, with several cold storage rooms going at once. Aunt Thelma, best of the Lords blessings be with you. Kelly, Cory, and pardon me for the senior moment, but can not for the life of me remember the others. May the choicest blessing of our Father in Heaven be up on you all, and keep you in His care. Our prayers and love go out to you. Dennis and Mary Ann and family
