

Floyd L. Sheppler

September 26, 1933 - May 17, 2025

Floyd Lewis Sheppler was born on September 26, 1933, in Great Falls, Montana, to Charles Leroy Sheppler and Amanda Jane Day-Sheppler. He is survived by his sister Beverly Haley, brother Richard Sheppler, daughter's Toni Woodward, Shelli Sheppler-Olmstead, and son Jeff Sheppler. He was raised with a strong work ethic, unwavering faith, and a deep love for family. Floyd dedicated many years of his life working at the Railroad and later as a Parts Specialist at Columbia Machine, earning the respect and admiration of those around him. He was a devoted and loving father to Toni, Shelli, and Jeff-always putting family first. His gentle spirit and devotion to the Lord left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him. A man of quiet strength and steadfast values, Floyd found joy in reading the Bible, watching Gunsmoke, and spending time with his church family. He passed peacefully on May 17, 2025, surrounded by his loving family and friends. He will be remembered with love, gratitude, and deep respect.
