

Francell J. Ford

July 7, 1918 - July 15, 2009

Francell June Ford Francell "Tiny" Ford, 91, died July 15, 2009, in the company of family in the home of her daughter, Susan Ford, in Vancouver, Washington. She was born July 7, 1918, in Salt Lake City, Utah, and graduated from West High School in 1936 in Denver, Colorado. Tiny married Rocky Ford in a chapel at Camp Hale, Colorado in 1943. They raised their family in Colorado, New Mexico, California, Grants Pass, Oregon, and moved to Vancouver in 1968. Tiny enjoyed drawing, painting, sewing, crafts, and gardening. Survivors include three daughters, Francell Mannan of Roseville, Calif., Bette Ford and Susan Ford of Vancouver; three sons, Rocky of Tigard, Ore., Roy of Vancouver and Rick Curnow of Des Moines, Wash.; 18 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, and 5 great-great-grandchildren. We love her and will always remember her family gatherings, art work, afghans, beach combing, 4th of July celebrations at the Fort, loving greeting cards, and dancing to Curtis Salgado. A service will begin at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, July 19 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens Funeral Chapel. She leaves us with this thought: "grieve not, nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk of me as if I were beside you I loved you so'twas Heaven here with you."

“ I miss my mom so much. She was a great lady and took good care of her six kids. She loved to take care of her yard and it will be sad to see it go down hill without her. I pray that her and dad are now happily reunited. Love - your daughter, Bette
