

Frank Steven Lyons

June 27, 1959 - February 13, 2015

FRANK STEVEN LYONS June 27, 1959 ~ February 13, 2015 Frank Steven Lyons passed away on February 13, 2015 after a two-year battle with cancer. He was 55 years old. Born in Vancouver, Washington to Maurice Frank Lyons and Helen Louise Lyons, the family moved to Pennsylvania where he spent the first half of his life. Raised in the era of muscle cars, Steve found his passion and completed a two-year degree in Automotive Repair. He returned to Vancouver to run his own business, Lyons Auto Upholstery. Steve loved the outdoors and wildlife and had a big, soft heart when it came to cats. An avid fisherman, he was most happy on the water. He had a keen interest in science and astronomy, even building his own telescope to view the stars. His strength and determination remain an inspiration. He was a good man, who will be missed. He was preceded in death by his parents and is survived by his sister, Carin Lyons. Private graveside funeral service will be held, Thursday, February 19, 1:30 p.m., at St. Mary of Guadalupe Church in Ridgefield, WA. Friends and family welcome. In lieu of flowers, family requests a donation to SCCA House (Seattle Cancer Care Alliance House).

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:51 PM

“ Steve and I shared many memories together. If best friends could become brothers, this would surely be the case. From riding Big Wheels as kids, jumping motor cycles like Evil Kenevil to his souped up Cobra Jet mustang, Steve lived his life in the fullest.

Craig Stewart - April 20, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Forever in my heart. With love forever.

Shirley Sander - February 19, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ You were a very nice young man, Steven and you will be greatly missed, especially by your loving, caring sister, Carin, who adored you.

Kathy Carty - February 19, 2015 at 12:00 AM