

Franklyn Mitchell Whitney

November 21, 1922 - October 3, 2010

Franklyn M. Whitney of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Oct. 3, 2010 at the age of 87. He was born in Portland, OR to Franklin and May Whitney. Frank received his B.S. in Industrial Engineering at OSU. He later retired from the U.S. Army Reserves with the rank of Major. Frank helped start the Cupples Paper Bag Co. in Clackamas, OR and was the vice president when he retired in 1987. He liked flying, golf and traveling. Frank is survived by his wife of 28 years, Margaret; sons, Gary and Mark Whitney; step-son, John Hopp; and step-daughters, Lori Taylor and Jeanne Galego; and 14 grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

JD

“Dear Margaret and family, We are so sorry for your loss. We have many wonderful memories of Frank. He was such a great guy and friend to us all.

Julie Davis - October 08, 2010 at 12:00 AM