

Freddie Luco Bellamy, Sr.

July 1, 1940 - April 2, 2024

Freddie Luco Bellamy Sr. passed away peacefully at his home in Washougal, WA on April 2nd, 2024. He was 83 years old. He was born in Conway, South Carolina on 7/1/1940 to Whildon and Viola Bellamy. He moved to Washington as a teenager, however, he never lost his love for the South. A hard-working man of great honor and USMC Veteran whose single focus in life was to ensure his entire family was always cared for and knew he loved them immensely. All who knew him loved him dearly. He was predeceased by his son Chris and his daughter Teresa, siblings Willie Joe, Don, Joyce, Emma Jean, and Tom. He is survived by his loving wife of 64 years Anna Marie whom he loved with all his heart, sons Fred Jr. (Zetta), Paul (Becky), 4 Grandchildren, 7 Great Grandchildren, 1 Great Great Grandson, and his sister Margie Dorr.

A Graveside Service will be held in the Garden of Inspiration at Evergreen Memorial Gardens (1101 NE 112th Ave, Vancouver, WA 98684) on April 12, 2024, at 12:00pm with a Celebration of Life following being held at Grace Foursquare Church (717 SE Everett St, Camas, WA 98607) at 2:00pm. Casual attire. Pocket shirts will be worn by many in honor of Freddie.

“ Fred was one of a kind. He was brave, kind and loving. He leaves a wonderful legacy in his loving family. I am honored to have known him and the fantastic family he leaves behind.

When the wind blows stop and you will hear him. If you are troubled look inside your heart and you will feel his guidance. Cherish his memory and continue to love one another as he loved you all.

RIP Fred.
