

Garnett William Hudson

March 21, 1921 - January 18, 2010

Dick Hudson, 88, a 65-year resident of Vancouver, WA, passed away peacefully on Mon., Jan. 18, 2010 at the Ray Hickey Hospice House after suffering a massive stroke on Jan. 12, 2010. Born in Murry, Arkansas to a family of five boys and six girls, Dick moved to Vancouver after serving 25 WWII Air Force missions over Germany. He and Celia Mae were married in 1945 and raised four daughters, nine grandchildren and a great-granddaughter. Self-employed for over 40 years as a general contractor, Dick was respected by everyone he touched in the business community and was known as an honorable, stand-up man. Dedicated to sharing God's love and grace to all, Dick and his wife have been influential in many areas including serving for 20 years on the Board of Directors for Youth Outreach, Inc. and the Clark County Christian School. They also helped to build The House of Vision Orphanage in Thailand. Our beloved "Papa" loved spending time with his family, watching The Lawrence Welk Show, dancing, fishing with his grandchildren and traveling with friends and relatives. He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Celia Mae in 2004; his parents; five brothers and two sisters; and his great-granddaughter, Christina in 2005. Dick's continuous smile and sweet spirit will be forever loved and missed by his brother, "Bud"; sisters, Maxine, Mary Jean, Lilah and Joanne; daughter, Susan and husband Pete Yost; daughter, Candace and husband Gary Haagen; daughter, Kathy McClung; daughter, M'Lyss Maygra; his grandchildren, Lisa, Samir, Lana, Travis, Kristin, Christopher, Amy, Matthew and Randy; and everyone who had the pleasure of meeting him.

“ As a friend of M'Lyss I was saddened to learn of her father's passing. The memorial to Mr. Hudson portrays a man who served his God, country, family & community all his life. I wish I had had the opportunity to meet him. Please accept my condolences. My thoughts & prayers are with you and your extended family.
