“ Even though I was just your son-in-law, you treated me as like one of your own sons. You are the kindest, loving and patient person I ever had the pleasure to meet. I will miss you with a sorrowful heart but, with joy in my soul knowing that you are with our Lord Jesus Christ. I LOVE YOU MOM!

“ I will always miss and love you, we all will. You were our matriarch and our linchpin, always holding the family together. I will miss the games of Aggravation, Uno, and Phase 10. You have taught me how to lose, but also how to win. Loving You Always, Sarah

“ I cant believe your gone Grandma. I was lucky to have you in my life for 30 years. You taught me a lot. There are so many memories I have of you its hard to come up with just one, but my fondest memory is of you and I in your kitchen baking whatever you heart desired. Your the reason why I put so much passion into everything I do. I'm determined to be the best for you. I know your with your Mom, Dad, and siblings now. Dance and be happy, I'll see you one day soon. “ My aunt Jenny was a big part of my life. I remember my parents taking me to the house and visiting for hours. She would let my play on the computer every time I went over there as a kid. After we moved to AZ, every summer, my folks would drive up to WA to visit with family and friends. We would see and Jenny and uncle David and the rest. I love those memories. I'll always remember Aunt Jenny Playing Uno and Skipbo with us, whistling a tune. Aunt Jenny will forever be in my heart and my thoughts. Aunt Jenny, I will always love you and miss you everyday! Thank you for all the love, laughter and the smiles throughout the years. I love you so much! Love, Joel, Chace and Cheyanne Xoxoxoxoxo

“ Ginny What can I say to you that you don't already know and now from your new home that you can't see. You were always my favorite and after half a life time of travels trekking from country to country and state to state, I always came back home; oft to see you. You have always and will always be in my heart. You were a quiet, non-judgemental mentor, a perfect reflection of my mom and thankfully after her passing you were there for me and mine. You were always the one who challenged me; in cards, and games, and life. I trust that you have always known that you are one of the basic reasons I am where I am, I do what I do, and live as I live today and I promise I will not let you down. You will always be in my mind and in my memories. Love David..
