“ I first personally met "Dad" in 1977. I had met him and talked to him in 1976. He did not get to raise me like Marie and Gerry. But I must say he was more a dad to me than my adopted dad or step dad. He was a wonderful man. He treated me as though he had raised me. He was warm hearted, loving, kind and funny. He and mother visited once or twice a year when we lived in Ohio. I was able to visit them in Bend OR several times and one time after mother passed. I was so happy for him and Louise when they married. Their time together was a blessing for dad. I could tell that he was getting weaker these past few months because he could not talk very long without tiring. I missed our talks very much. He will be greatly missed by me, RonDale and our family. One thing he used to do say when he bought a new is " well I spent your inheritance" and I would say great you deserve it, you earned every penny and then we would laugh. In the 53 years he was apart of my family he was a joy. We all loved him so much.💕. Someday I know we will see him and mother again in God's kingdom.

“ George was my husband's father for 71 years. We have many memories through those years of times with George and his wife, Dorothy and after Dorothy's death in 2004, with Louise Barbo, who was his loving companion for 14 years, until her death in 2019. I We will miss Dad. Gerald and Katherine Darnell
