

George Toufic David

May 6, 1930 - June 13, 2020

George Toufic David (Georgos Toufic Daoud) left us on June 13, 2020, at the age of 90. He was born on May 6, 1930, in Tekrite, Lebanon - Parents Toufic and Anesthesia Daoud. He was the eldest of three boys (Brothers Munir and Ibrahim). Ibrahim preceded him in death.

He met the love of his life, Victoria, and were married in 1958. Together they started a beautiful life together. They had six children (Suzannah, Norma, Tony, Mounira (Mimi), Antoinette, Catherine), who love and adore them both. After years of service, He retired from the Lebanese Army with high honors. George and Victoria moved to the United States on a new adventure in 1968/1969. They both worked hard to provide for their family during the day and studied the English language at night. They missed their families they left behind but wanted to make a new life for themselves and their children.

George loved bird hunting and fishing. He loved sharing stories about his childhood adventures and his time in the military. As a family, we have many fond memories of barbeques, picnics, and watching our favorite shows together. He was always willing to help with any project you needed help with and never complained about aches or pains. He loved his children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews and looked forward to their visits. He did not ask for much in life...He only wanted the best for his family and to know that they are happy and safe.

Cancer may have taken him from our lives, but it cannot take him from our hearts. George's final resting place is at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Vancouver, WA - He is in the outside Mausoleum's Sixth Addition East Niche Wall, Row 8, Niche 4.

He will be missed by all who knew and loved him...especially his family. Even though we rest in knowing he is with our Lord and Savior, there's an emptiness in our lives and hearts which will never be filled. Our hearts are broken. Until we meet again, Your Loving Family.

“ Hi dad,
Today is your birthday and you are still in my heart. There is a huge hole in my life that will never be filled. You are deeply missed. I wish that I had told how much I love you more often. You and mom worked so hard to give us a better life. You both sacrificed so much for us! I love you so much. I just want one more hug from you but one won't be enough!! Mom misses you a lot too....she can't seem to move past losing you....I can relate. You will never be forgotten dad... and you will always have my love!

“ I am always thinking about you Dad!! I saw this poem and thought of you even more..Love you always dad!

*"They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time or reason,
Will change the way we feel.
For no one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried.
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without.
We cannot bring the old days back,
When we were all together,
The family chain is broken now,
But memories live forever."*

“ Today marks 3 years since you left us to be in Heaven. It is still Painful to know that I can't talk to you and see you and hug you. I/We miss you so much dad. Mom has never stopped mourning and misses you. My Sophie misses you too. You have new Great-Grandkids who will never know you....They are missing a lot by not knowing you. I am blessed to have known you the most...but, I also still grieve for you dad. I wish that I can tell you how much you are loved. I am praying that you know this already. “ Hi Dad, I miss you so very much. It's been 2 years and i still have a hard time believing you're gone. I was telling Jarod about our Sunday BBQ's and I told him no one could bbq like you. I gave him your recipe for hamburger and he is going to make it for me in your honor. We love you and miss you so much. 💕💕

“ Hi Dad, I cannot believe that it has been 2 years today since you left us....the pain is the same as when you first left. We miss you so much! Mom is having such a hard time letting go too...but that is because we LOVE you so much! I pray that you know how much you are loved...and maybe you do. Words alone do not really say how much we feel for you and how much we miss you....Our hearts are so broken and will never be the same. Sending many hugs to you dad. I know that God promises that we will all see each other again and to have faith...but for now, we wish that we can see you and hug you in person. Love you so much dad! Your daughter, Suzannah

“ Hi Dad, I can't believe it's been almost a year that you left us. It's still hard to wrap my head around it. I still find myself thinking "oh I got to call dad to say hi and see how he's doing" or how I want to share a thought or share what's happening in my life. i miss you so much. Mom misses you and just hasn't been able to get over the loss of the love of her life. Dad, I miss calling you dad. A word I'll never get to say again. I love you so much . I miss you. “ Hello dad, It has been a very tough year without you. I see you in my dreams and hear your laughter, but you are not here. I miss you so much. I took so much for granted when you were here and can see you anytime I wanted.... but now, I can't and that is the hardest thing to accept...we all miss you! My Sophie misses you too!! Hard to believe that it has been a year already...My heart still aches and it feels like it was just yesterday that our Lord called you to heaven...if I had to do it all over again....I'd have kissed and hugged you more and told you how much I LOVE YOU every day!! Rest in peace and without pain... Love always~ Suzannah

We don't really remember how short life really is until those we love are gone. I miss seeing your smile when I come over to visit and hearing your laughter when something tickles your funny bone. I miss talking to you about the past...and mostly I miss you so much!! I want to hug you...which I wish we would have done a lot more.

“ Hi Dad. I'm about to watch your tribute video again. It makes me cry , sad, smile and back to crying every time. Yesterday was hard. So many memories of our 4th of a July. I was looking for those sparklers you use to buy us every year. I'm sad knowing you won't be with us for any holiday, birthday, special occasions. 😭😭 that I will never get to hear your voice again, see you smile, or hear you say "hi boba". I still can't grasp you're gone. I think I'm going to wake up and realize it was just a dream, but it's not. There's a hole in my heart that will never heal. I miss you so much dad. “ Dad, I finally had a dream about you last night. Although I did have a short dream a week ago. This one was a bit longer. We were sitting on the couch and you were telling me that you weren't feeling well and you didn't think you were going to get better. I held your arm so tight and said you're going to be fine. You said no you didn't think you would and I cried and cried as I wrapped my arm around your arm tighter and tighter. Then just like that I woke up. Eyes swollen from crying in my sleep as I realized you're gone and that you won't get better. I'm not dealing with this very well. I want you hear your voice. I miss you. I'm sad all the time. I cry a lot. I know you are pain free now and with God, so it's me being selfish. I love you so much. I hope I have a dream where we are talking, not about you being sick, anything but that. 🥺🥺🥺

“ Today, like everyday, was hard dad. Looking through some of your photos wearing your suits and well polished shoes looking so handsome. I'm not sure why this popped up, but I started thinking about how you would have us drink a glass of tap water every morning before we left the house for school so we wouldn't catch a cold. And how you would made sure the covers were tucked in tight under the mattress so the covers wouldn't come off of us during the night. You and mom always wanted to make sure we were safe and healthy and couldn't rest until each one of your children were home safe and sound. I miss you so much. I Love you Dad ❤️❤️❤️

“Dad, you taught me to work hard and to love deeply. I hear your voice all day long and miss you so very much. I see your face every time I go into my garden, which you taught me how to grow. I am sad that I will no longer make new memories with you...but I am grateful for the wonderful memories that I do have...they will never be enough. The huge family you left behind misses you terribly...Sophie also misses you. She wonders where you are, as she visits your bedroom looking for a glimpse of you, and to hear you call out the nickname you gave her "cookie", which she will never hear. I know that you are in God's care now and no longer in Pain. You are forever in my heart. I Love you so much dad!

“Jiddo Its hard to express how much I loved seeing you or talking with you on the phone. Some of my favorite memories growing up are of you watching George and I every summer break (and whenever we were "sick"). You made the BEST eggs (sorry Tita, he has you beat on that one). You showed us what good TV shows were (Sanford and Sons!!). You made up any game to keep us entertained (the race track a few times a year was AWESOME). You saved Murray when he was torn apart. You gave us haircuts that would irritate my Mom (Moms reaction was always the best haha). You taught us naps should be enjoyed (gosh I wish I loved them then like i do now haha). You let me wear your military medals every time I asked. And you fed us all the figs we could possibly eat. You were softer and kinder than most knew. Only the grandkids got to see that (OK and Sophie too). My heart is hurting but thats ok. I know you are always with me. I love you. I miss you. I cannot wait to see you again. You better believe I will be asking for more of those eggs when we meet again.

You put my jacket on, zipped it up and made sure my hair was tuck under my hood to protect me from the rain. You only wanted the best for us. You taught me so much! Though you were stricked at times 😊 I know it was because you worried and loved us! I miss you dad and you will always be in my thoughts everday.. Billy and Georgey miss you too dad.
