“Pat, Dennis, and Victoria, This is not meant to be invasive, but I value so many persons in my life who offered me so many opportunities to grow and experience life. Life can be a fleeting moment and persons can influence for a reason, a season or a lifetime. I have been fortunate to know so many wonderful persons in my life. I recall George as a very determined man. Self made and focused and very successful. He was balanced in life by his compassionate wife Edith. George was the driven husband and Edith was the warm, compassionate, hard working wife by his side. I hope that both George and Edith were able to keep their thought processes even though their thought processes may be slower. I hope they recognized you as their children and also for who you were since parental acceptance is such a luxury. Age mellows people and many times they are able to accept all of those around them for who they are and what they choose to become. My gracious condolences. Elaine Betschart
