

George Carl Ketchmark

April 8, 1919 - December 4, 2011

GEORGE CARL KETCHMARK April 8, 1919 ~ December 4, 2011 "George always had time to help others with their projects." George Carl Ketchmark, 92, of Washougal, WA, passed away on Dec. 4, 2011 at the Ray Hickey Hospice House in Vancouver, WA. He was born in Prindle, WA to Walter and Katherine (Puzio, Knopski) Ketchmark. George worked as a kid on the railroad with his dad. He also worked for the Skamania County Road Dept. and on the log rafts at Crown Zellerbach. He was a logger, timber cruiser and commercial fisherman for many years. George retired from the Port of Portland as a leverman on the dredge 'Oregon' after 30 years. George was an avid hunter and sports fisherman. He and his family enjoyed many trips clamming, shrimping, hunting, fishing and wood cutting. He also enjoyed gardening and working around his home and property. George is survived by his daughter, Trula (Alan) Anderson of Washougal; son, Truman of Waianae, HI; grandchildren, Mike (Karen) Bell and Niki Anderson of Washougal, Tonya Berg of Roseville, CA, Kim (Georgia) Ketchmark of Vancouver and Kelly Sannah of Anaheim, CA; and seven great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife of 62 years, Mary Ellen (Sheets); son, Steve; sister, Florence Kleveland; brother, Albert Ketchmark; half-brother, Tony Knopski; and half-sisters, Jenny Good and Irene Shields. There are no services planned at this time.
