

George T. Peekema Jr.

June 19, 1928 - October 1, 2009

George T. Peekema, Jr., 81, of Vancouver, died October 1, 2009. George was born June 19, 1928 to George and Caroline Peekema in San Francisco, CA. He was an industrial engineer, businessman and farmer. He is survived by his brother, Richard M. Peekema of San Jose, CA and many loving nephews and nieces. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Clark College Foundation The Joanne Peekema Scholarship for the Arts Endowment.

Tribute Wall

MD

“ I started working for George in 1984. During those twenty years I learned many things. The true meaning of tenaciousness, loyalty, what work ethic really is and compassion are just a few. I will miss George.

Mary Drushella - October 22, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ I have known George for 30 years. I went to work for him in 1980 and since then have appreciated his commitment to providing employment for so many people through the tough economic times. He always showed concern and supported me during some difficult times in my life. I will remember him fondly and miss him very much.

Carolyn Beutler - October 21, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BH

“ All of us softball players and former teammates will miss George, he was a great guy and one I will always remember.

Ben Hammett - October 19, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JG

“ I became involved with George in 2004 when myself and John Layton purchased one of Georges companies in Salem, Oregon. George was always supportive and assisted us in making both financial and operational decisions for this company. He always showed interest in our private lives and family. I will miss George's friendship, his humor and wit, along with his support and belief in what we are doing with his old company. My condolences to the Peekema family. Sincerely John P gall

John & Deborah Gall - October 13, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TL

“ I worked for George from 1987 until he sold the company in 2004. I want the family to know that George was one of the most loyal people I have ever known. He and I had been thru a lot of difficult business situations. And George allways gave me a lot of freedom to do things the way I thought was best and allways backed me up 100% Donna and I counted George and Joan as friends. Wwe will trully miss them. May God have mercy on George's soul. With our deep sympathy Terry and Donna Lemke

Terry Lemke - October 09, 2009 at 12:00 AM