

Georgia Cadwell

August 3, 1921 - September 26, 2010

Georgia T. Cadwell, 89, of Vancouver, WA, passed away Sept. 26, 2010 at the Hospice Care Center in Longview, WA with her daughters at her bedside. She was born Aug. 3, 1921 in Powell Butte, OR to George and Sadie Truesdale, the youngest of five daughters. In 1943, she met Jim Patterson and their romance flourished via a long distance mail courtship while he served in the Army Air Corps. They married in 1945 and had three daughters, Julie, Chris and Patti. After several moves throughout the Northwest, they settled in Vancouver where Georgia was a homemaker, volunteer, bridge enthusiast and avid golfer with bragging rights to two holes in one. After Jim Patterson's death, she married Jim Cadwell and they enjoyed many happy years of travel and, of course, golf. Georgia is survived by her daughter Julie and husband Jim Powers of Tacoma, WA and their children, Marc, Rebecca and T.J. (with wife Gini and daughter Avery); her daughter Patti and husband Stan Smith of Longview and their daughters, Ashley and Kelsey; and sister, Kathryn Schneider and her daughters, Judy and Jane. She was preceded in death by her husbands, Jim Patterson and Jim Cadwell; her daughter, Christine Patterson; and three sisters. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you practice a random act of kindness in memory of Georgia. Memorial service to be held at Waterford at Fairway Village, Vancouver, WA on Sat., Oct. 9, 2010 at 3:00 p.m.
