

Gerald Alan Farmer

July 7, 1947 - March 20, 2015

GERALD "JERRY" ALLAN FARMER July 7, 1947 ~ March 20, 2015 Jerry died from complications of Prostate Cancer. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Grace; two sons, Geoff 39 and Garrett 35; two grandsons, Shane 10 and Simon 4; and a granddaughter expected in September; and his mother, Ann. He was a graduate of George Fox University and worked in the heavy equipment industries for over 35 years, most recently as the Western Regional Manager for Komatsu. He loved to travel, watch sports, and be with his family. Please sign Jerry's Guest Book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 07:18 PM

A square placeholder for a profile picture, containing the letters 'KH' in a white, sans-serif font on a light gray background.

“ Grace - I just learned of Jerry's death and am so saddened for your loss and the loss to everyone who knew him. Jerry was best man at our wedding & although the marriage didn't last, the friendship with Jerry never faded. The 4 of us had such great fun and I will always remember his passion for life and his laugh. My love and prayers go out to your family. K

K Harrison - April 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM