

Gerald "Jer" Ira Hood

August 28, 1947 - March 8, 2022

Gerald Ira "Jer" Hood passed away at home March 8, 2022 in Vancouver Washington at 74 years old.

Gerald was born August 28th, 1947 in Walla Walla Washington. His family moved to Vancouver a short time after, where he attended school and graduated from Evergreen High. He joined the Navy August 15, 1968 and was stationed in Port Hueneme, California where he was a mechanic. Gerald met Linda, his wife of 53 years and they were married in June 1969. Gerald and Linda raised 2 boys and enjoyed camping and fishing together near home in Simi Valley. He was a war era veteran and honorably discharged from the Navy in 1974.

Gerald and Linda moved home to Vancouver WA in 1993, while he worked for Ryder Logistics, eventually retiring from US Foods in 2010. When Gerald moved back home, he did a lot more hunting, fishing, and camping with his family.

Preceded in death by his parents, Anna Clara and Cornelius Ira Hood, two brothers, Kenneth and David, sister, Jeri Holden. He is survived by his wife, Linda, two sons, Ralph, and Mike Hood (Jean), two brothers, Randy (Denise), and Larry Hood, and sister, Patricia Hunt (Randy).

Gerald had a passion for the Pacific NW. He was a devoted family man and provider. His laugh and smile will be missed.

Graveside service will be 2PM on Friday, April 1st at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.
