

Gerald William Kohler

August 2, 1940 - July 17, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

PR

“ Is this the Jerry Kohler who taught in Manson, WA, and then moved to Germany? If so, Jerry & I taught & lived together in Manson, WA . Jerry was a great friend and I enjoyed visiting his dad in Vancouver, going to see his Alma Mater, Central Washington, seeing Jack Jones in Vancouver, WA, and having Jerry teach me how to drive a Volkswagen. So sorry to hear of his passing before I was able to get together with him. I tried, but couldn't locate him. I will miss, but have great memories of Jerry.

Phil Robicheau

p.robicheau@icloud.com

Phil Robicheau - October 06, 2023 at 12:00 AM

ME

“ Oh Lea. I am truly so sorry. Your dad was a wonderful man. Sending you and your mom love and prayers. Please send her my condolences.

Melissa - August 25, 2022 at 12:00 AM

LK

“ Hi...Jim its Lea I thank you for that heart felt comment about my dad he would have really appreciated it. It would have put a big smile on his face and light up his heart. I wish he was still with us. I am still here in the home his presence here is missed. I am so happy you paid tribute to his life. Thank you very much. I hope you and Chieko are well. The phone number is the same if you would like to contact me. I am here. Lea

Lea Kohler - August 02, 2022 at 12:00 AM

LK

“ Gerald or Jerry Kohler was my dad. Today, is his birthday. I miss him very much. He would have been 82 yrs old. I learned a lot from him. He loved teaching school. I appreciate him and love him very much. His presence is missed very much.

Lea Kohler - August 02, 2022 at 12:00 AM

OD

“ I met Jerry at BSLC when we joined the church in Nov. 2004. He also attended the Wed. a.m. Bible Study led by Bishop Jaech. He was fairly quiet, but when he contributed, it was intelligent and at length. He attended the early service and brought another member who resided in an assisted living facility. We lived close to the Kohler's and would see him walking around the neighborhood, ending with coffee somewhere. I had a couple of lengthy conversations with him when he was "taking a vacation from church". The last time I saw him was when I took him to a medical appointment shortly before Tina died. He said the next time I saw him he'd buy me the most expensive beverage Starbuck's had and give me some financial advice. Jerry, I'll collect on that on the other side!

odettewoodward@comcast.net - August 27, 2020 at 12:00 AM