“ We learn the most about God when times are tough. I would go through all the pain and loss just to hold you and tell you how much I love you, one more time. I miss you so much, and Im so sorry for everything. I never meant any harm to you or your family. Love keeps no records of wrongs. I love your family. I pray one day that I will be able to see my grandchildren. Until then, I pray that God be with them each and everyday, knowing that Our Heavenly Father is with them, I know they are in good hands. Thank you Jesus for taking care of my baby.....

“ Gina, I love you for being the mother and wife that you were and for devoting your life to my brother and your family. There are no words that can express how much I love you. You are my sister and will always be...I will miss our conversations and hearing your laugh. You have been an inspiration and a wonderful addition to this family. I thank God for blessing us with the time we had together. I will keep the memories forever close to my heart. I miss you today, tomorrow and always.
