

Gladys Gilbert Morrison

November 9, 1915 - December 2, 2010

"She is best known to her family and friends as always positive, smiling and possessing a great sense of humor. " Gladys Morrison, 95, of Vancouver, WA, passed away peacefully Dec. 2, 2010. She was born on Nov. 9, 1915 in Eskridge, KS to Ernest and Hazel Gilbert. Gladys moved to Vancouver in 1969 with her husband, John R. Morrison, Sr. upon his retirement from Eastman Kodak Co in Rochester, NY. For many years, she had committed herself to being close to her parents in their later years to help care for them, a commitment she fulfilled completely. She and her husband married on Dec. 5, 1937 and spent 67 years together. They enjoyed a variety of activities with each other including church, travel, antiques, fishing and amateur geology. Never one to sit on the sidelines, she was helpful to all and was a friend to everyone. She was especially devoted to every stray animal that crossed her path. Kittens were her special love but no needy animal was turned away. With a school bus stop at her driveway, it was not unusual for kids to bring her lost or hurt animals for care. Gladys is survived by daughters, June Dickinson (Dallas) and Jean Walton (Herb) both of Palmyra, NY; son, John R. Morrison, Jr. (Mary Ann) of Battle Ground, WA; sisters, Myrtle Ensminger of Vancouver, WA and Margaret Beasterfeld (Sherman) of Topeka, KS; and brother, Raymond Gilbert of Miltonvale, KS; granddaughters, Mandy Biles (Dan) of Portland, TX, Missy Salyers (Shaun) of San Antonio, TX, Jennifer Walton of Greenville, SC and Kathy Brien (John) of Victor, NY; and eight great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, John, in 2004; a brother, Ernest, in 1977; and great-granddaughter, Allyson, 3, in 2004.
