GLADYS ELLEN (TRAUB) NOBLITT March 10, 1922 ~ September 8, 2014

"Gladys was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother." Gladys Ellen (Traub) Noblitt, 92, of Vancouver, WA, passed away Sept. 8, 2014. She was born March 10, 1922 to John Albert and Nellie Caroline (Lawson) Traub in Hardy, NE. She graduated from R.A. Long in 1941. Gladys helped with the war cause as a "Rosie the Rivoter" and later retired as an inspector from Longview Fibre and McDonnell Douglas. She was an elegant hostess for family and friends, enjoyed bowling, and was a great animal lover. Gladys is survived by her daughter, Carolyn Wade; two grandchildren, Michael and Lori Wade; and seven great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Dale; parents; and son-in-law, Loren Wade. A memorial service will be held for Gladys on Sat., Sept. 20, 2014 at 3:00 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens with a graveside service to follow at Park Hill Cemetery. Please sign her guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

“ I have many fond memories of both Gladys and Dale-what jumps to mind first is how they often played Password with my folks-Keith and Evelyn. Who knows-maybe they are again. My thoughts are with you-we will all miss her.
