

Glen Ellis Carrell

May 9, 1930 - November 22, 2010

"Our beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, grandpa, and friend, Tod, will be dearly missed." Glen "Tod" Ellis Carrell, a long time resident of Vancouver, WA, passed away peacefully in his home on Mon., Nov. 22nd, 2010. He was born to C.T. and Thelma Carrell in Yakima, WA on May 9, 1930. Tod grew up in Naches, WA and was a graduate of Naches Valley High School and Central Washington State College. He went on to careers in banking and insurance. He constructed and managed his own properties for 40 years. Tod was very proud of his 27 years of sobriety. He attributed the success of his sobriety to the help of the Lord Jesus Christ, Alcoholics Anonymous and Birds of a Feather family. Tod loved flying his Cessna 140, getting together with family and friends, traveling, mountain climbing, snow skiing, fishing (catching), sailing, and mentoring his grandchildren, nephews and nieces. Tod is survived by his wife, Colleen; sons, Doug and David; grandchildren: Jordan, Andrew, Evan, Caitlin and Rachael. Through marriage, Tod received into his family nine children; 20 grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren, whom he loved as his own. He is survived by his brother, Ray; sister, Kathy; several nephews and nieces, cousins; and his, 97 year-old uncle, Earl Slaybaugh. He was preceded in death by his mother and father; his younger brother, Ron; and several aunts and uncles.
