

Glenn Courtney

November 18, 1920 - October 7, 2011

GLENN COURTNEY November 18, 1920 ~ October 7, 2011 "Glenn was well liked for his easy going, kind, caring personality and sense of humor." Glenn Courtney of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Fri., Oct. 7, 2011 after a long battle with Parkinson's. He was born to Louella and Lester Courtney on Nov. 18, 1920 in Hayes (Woodland), WA and graduated from Vancouver High School in 1940. Glenn served in WW II in the Signal Corps and in the Communications Center for General Patton following D-Day. After Glenn retired from Western Electric, he started his own excavation business. He was an active life member of the Brooks Truck Museum. He was also active in the Volcano Model A Club. Glenn and Clara enjoyed many years in their motor home traveling up to Alaska and through the USA. Survivors include his daughter, Sharen (John) Shierman; two granddaughters, Sindy (Duane) Brown and Juli (George) Manniello; two nephews, Jim and Jack Courtney; sisters-in-law, Arlene Price and Joanne Galloway; and his loving companion, Jan March. He was preceded in death by his parents; wife Clara in Dec. 2007; and brother, Lester in 1979. A special thanks to Kaiser Hospice and to the wonderful staff at Glenwood Assisted Living from the family. Funeral services will be Thurs., Oct. 13, 2011, 12:30 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave., Vancouver, WA. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Kaiser Hospice, 2701 NW Vaughn, Suite 140, Portland, OR 97210.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:31 PM