“ To my friend Greg, I count myself as lucky to have had you in my life. Not only were you a hardworking, talented individual but I believe you to be one of the kindest and nicest people I have had the honor of knowing. I hope you are enjoying eternal sunshine, water skiing and fishing - not to mention maybe a cold beer. I know you will look over my shoulder as I do my home improvement and garden projects. The world is a better place for having you in it. You will be missed. Deepest Sympathies to your family and all who love you.
