Obituary for Hansa (Gopiben) Bansilal Shah

January 17, 1938 – March 26, 2026

Hansa (Gopiben) B. Shah, a beloved mother and grandmother, passed away peacefully on March 26, 2026, surrounded by the love and prayers of her family. She was the devoted wife of Bansilal C. Shah, with whom she shared 51 years of marriage built on love, partnership, and steadfast support. Born in Vadodara, Gujarat, India, to Panalal Hiralal Parikh and Taraben Panalal Parikh, Gopiben embodied resilience, devotion, and a quiet strength that touched all who knew her. Her gentle nature and warm smile brought comfort and peace wherever she went. Gopiben spent her early years in India as a dedicated teacher. In 1973, she and Bansilal took a courageous leap of faith, immigrating to the United States to give their family the opportunities they dreamed of. She went on to build a 30-year career in the environmental services department at St. Joseph Hospital in Idaho, where she eventually retired. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bansilal. She is survived by her children, Shilpa and her spouse Paul, and Saurabh and his spouse Ami; as well as her grandchildren, Naveed, Sinjin, and Alisha, who will continue to honor her memory through the values she instilled and the love she gave them. A service to celebrate her life will be held on Friday, April 3rd, from 10:00 a.m. to noon at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave., Vancouver, WA 98684. The family welcomes prayers, memories, and the support of all who knew her. “Those we love never truly leave us. Their love leaves an imprint that time can never erase.”
