

Harriet Joyce Starks

January 24, 1933 - January 16, 2010

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

JS

“ You will be missed i love you and miss you so much. I think of you every day i love you and I hope you are with grandpa now. love you jennifer

Jennifer Starks - November 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM

CS

“ I have known Harriet for several years . We worked together at Camalot Care Center . She was my boss . She honestly was the nicest boss I have ever had . She was kind and funny . Harriet always had a smile on her face . I would like to extend my sympathy to the Starks family and to all that love and miss Harriet . Christy Sexton

Christy Sexton - January 23, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MG

“ I loved my grandmother so much! She will be missed by us all. I loved talking to her, but more than anything I loved visiting and debating with her. I not only got the brilliant ability to debate and argue from her, but I also learned how to cook for an army! I will always remember the fun times with my grandmother. There were always laughs to be had, and she had a way with children. I remember even the neighbor kids would think of her as a grandmother. We could always have fun and laugh with her, but we also knew our place and we NEVER wanted to cross the line with her. I can go on and on. She truly LOVED being a grandma, and I loved being her granddaughter. Thank you Grandma and may you continue to be with us and look out over us.

Melissa Gastelum - January 22, 2010 at 12:00 AM

CS

“Harriet was a wonderful blessing when she entered my life. After my mother and grandmother died, she always treated me like a daughter. We have laughed, got ourselves into trouble, argued, and loved. And we did most of together. Her and Al were like rocks in the family that grounded their children. She laughed at me all the time because I was so frustrated at trying to handle 5 young children. She would laugh and tell me she thought it was fun as it reminded her of when her 5 children were young. I miss her. I will always miss her.”

Catherine Starks - January 22, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SR

“The first memory I have of my Grandma is meeting her and my Grandpa late at night after what seemed like a 20 hour drive. That summer I seriously gained like 15 pounds, at least! I loved to eat and Grandma showed me how to do it right! Who would have thought of peaches, milk, and sugar? Grandma was full of love and always was giving. Every summer I packed up my room and we got "shipped away" to her house. At times I was a brat, yes we all know I ran away and hid in closets, and Grandma let me know she wasn't happy about that. Other times I was busy slamming my head in the concrete while playing hop scotch. Every summer we had the time of our lives. She had a special birthday party for all three of us, she bought us clothes, toys, pounds of candy, fed us amazing food (yes she cooked for an army and I learned to eat like one), and she was always there to talk to and ask simple questions that only Grandma would know answers to. I know she is no longer in pain and is happy now with Grandpa, because the love they shared was amazing. She took care of Grandpa till the day he passed. She is one of the strongest people I've ever known. I can go on and on about the many wonderful times we shared and about how much I love and will miss Grandma. I love her and will never forget her or the many memories and laughs we have shared.”

Sandra Rodriguez - January 22, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SR

“ The first memory I have of my Grandma is meeting her & my Grandpa late at night after what seemed like a 20 hr drive. That summer I seriously gained 15 pounds, at least! I loved to eat & Grandma showed me how to do it right! Who would have thought of peaches, milk, & sugar? Grandma was full of love & so giving. Every summer I packed up my room & we got "shipped away" to her house. At times I was a brat, yes we all know I ran away & hid in closets, & Grandma let me know she wasn't happy about that. Every summer we had the time of our lives. She had a special birthday party for all three of us, she bought us clothes, toys, pounds of candy, fed us amazing food, & she was always there to talk to & ask simple questions that only Grandma would know answers to. I know she is no longer in pain & is happy now with Grandpa, because the love they shared was amazing. She is one of the strongest and loving people I've ever known. I love her & will never forget her or the many memories we have shared.

Sandra Rodriguez - January 22, 2010 at 12:00 AM

TE

“ i wil always love and miss you

terry - January 21, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ I have known Harriet 30 years and shared some really funny moments with her. She used to tell me I should have been a car salesman. Maybe if I would have taken her advice I would have a good job now. In the years I knew Harriet she was a funny person and a very delightful person. I will miss her very much as many others will. She had 5 children that loved her very much. Mark mark sexton - January 21, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ you will be greatly missed you were loved by many

sarah - January 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM