

Harry Lawrence Hodgson

January 24, 1942 - January 3, 2012

HARRY L. HODGSON January 24, 1942 ~ January 13, 2012 Harry L. Hodgson, loving husband, dad, grandpa and friend, entered heaven's gates on January 13, 2012. His three-year battle with lung cancer was over and the victory was won. He ran the race with grace and dignity, never giving up. Harry was born in Los Angeles, CA on January 24, 1942. In 1943 he was legally adopted by Clarke and Helen Hodgson. Harry grew up in Eagle Rock, CA. He enlisted in the Navy after graduating from Eagle Rock High School in 1960. He served four years in the Navy aboard the USS Los Angeles. Harry had a variety of jobs during his working career. The one he loved the most was being a truck driver. After retiring from truck driving he had his own handyman business for several years. He was a very skilled craftsman and enjoyed making things with his hands. Harry spent his retirement years serving his Lord through ministry. He was an active member of Campers On Mission, Disaster Relief and Mission Service Corps. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Sherry; son, David Hodgson (Joeleen); daughter, Cindy Johnston (Jon); and grandchildren, Felisha Hodgson, Jeremy Hodgson, and Lily Black. A Celebration of Life service will be held at Northside Baptist Church, 5201 NE Minnehaha St., Vancouver, WA on Saturday, January 28 at 2:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Lungevity Foundation.
