

Hasani Jaseline Robinson

January 4, 1972 - December 1, 2016

Hasani Jasline Robinson made the transition to Glory on December 1, 2016 at the age of 44 years. She was born January 4, 1972, the Daughter of Johnny L. Polite, Sr. and Michelle T. Wilkins in Van Nuys, California. Hasani, the only daughter, was blessed with four brothers who loved her unconditionally in their own way. During her earlier years, her mother moved with her and her brothers to Portland, Oregon, where Hasani lived for several years. She later moved to Vancouver, WA to be near her Mother and Step-Father, Emanuel Wilkins whom she treasured. "Daddy Emanuel" always counseled her on the ways of Christian living and the goodness of God is. Because of this counseling, Hasani rededicated her life to Christ and was baptized again with her family there to support her. There was no greater Love and closeness than when Hasani called on her stepfather to help when she needed things done, he was there even if he fussed at her in love. She listened. Hasani suffered more than her share of physical and mental pain, which she mostly handled stoically by reminding herself that the more "bad karma" she worked out in this life, the less she would face in the next. Hasani was a true daughter to her mother, and became the "Momma" to all who needed one. She was the one who, when issues arose, conquered. After rededicating her life to Christ, she saw how blessed her life was and shared with her children who meant the world. Her joy was her granddaughter Elessie and the moments they shared although short moments. Hasani had many things she wanted to do, but she never forgot that Jesus was at the top and the angels watched over her. Smart she was and schooling was not hard for her by no means as well she had no problem talking to people especially in the business world of telemarketing. There are many stories and facets of Hasani that were behind the scenes and shown to many individuals. She made significant impact on their lives. Memories will follow in all our hearts. Hasani had 2 children her oldest, a daughter, and a son who loved her unconditionally and her them Sharai Marita Polite-Washington and Jimmy Guyton were the highlight of all she was and shall be always. Hasani loved life, children and most of all people. Sentiment poem from the granddaughter Elessie Ann to her Grandma : A letter for my grandma, Dear grandma, I'm not sure what to say . I wish God would explain, why you couldn't be here anymore. Our special memories of you will always bring a smile to my face. I missed getting a hug, and I miss hearing you say I love you. You are huggable, lovable, silly, beautiful, but most of all nobody can replace you. You will always be in my heart. I'm going to miss my grandma's voice that travels like lightning love always your one and only grand-baby Elessie Ann She was preceded in death by her husband Desmond Robinson. She leaves behind to cherish her memories and life: daughter-Sharai Polite-Washington, Jimmy L. Guyton, III, her son, Her mother and stepfather Michelle and Emanuel Wilkins, Her brothers Johnny L. Polite, Jr (Denise), Amad J. Polite, Devier Brown, Trevalion Jones. One granddaughter and also many cousins, nieces, Aunts, Uncles, and nephews. & Friends.
