

Hayli M Morgan

January 13, 1994 - December 18, 2021

Heaven gained another beautiful Angel ~Our Hayli Marie. She was a beautiful broken soul with big dreams!! She was a natural with a pencil and paper creating the most amazing freehand artwork and had this ability to beautify anything with her creative visions. Hayli could light up a room with her sweetest disposition and was everyone's greatest cheerleader. For every broken soul she encountered the very words "you can do it; you are worth it; believe in yourself!" The same advice she gave to all those who needed it she received ten fold. Unfortunately because of all her hidden pain Hayli was unable to truly hear what a beautiful daughter, niece, sister, mother, cousin and friend she was inside and out. She blessed our family with 4 beautiful daughters whom resemble their beautiful mama so elegantly. Kaeliyah Marie ~Laelah Bre ~ Aricela Nicole ~ Abigail Natalina Marie! May you watch over us all Until we meet in heaven.

“ My precious Hayli ~ it is still so hard to believe you are gone. Just a few days before you passed we were video chatting with you, the girls, Bre and I and you were asking me to send you my yummy dinner I was making. You were actually happy and you were telling me how you were making huge changes in your life for the better. Now I lay in bed at night or randomly throughout my day I have vivid memories of you crossing my mind. So many memories come from no where and lay upon my heart and soul. You loved to come and wiggle your tiny little self on my lap And would lay your head there so I could play with your hair or rub your fuzzy little back!! You loved the smell of my skin which I thought was crazy. But you were in my body for 9 months so maybe that's why?!? You use to cook amazing meals especially after I had had a very long day at work. You truly were gifted at so much!! . I loved watching you put on your makeup even though you didn't need anything because you were so naturally beautiful. You were simple and kind. Smart and sensitive. You were a very good mom but unfortunately because of a vicious hold that poison had on you, instead you continued to reap the constant pain from everything especially not having all your daughters in your life. I slowly watched you dying inside and I never could save you. And I will always carry that guilt with me. Continue to watch over your precious daughters My girl. I am very thankful to have Bre and Abby in my life and pray that things will be different with Lala and Nikki. Know there's not a moment in each day that you're not thought of or not missed. And I cherish those moments when I feel you are with me!! Until I get to snuggle with you again. And smell your scent, see that beautiful smile and feel your arms wrapped in mine. I love and miss you TERRIBLY!! Love mom
