“ I first met Heather at a Union Sunday meeting. I was so impressed by her quiet courage. I have carried her in my heart back to Alaska. Thankful there is no more pain or tears for her in eternity with our loving Father.

“ Heather your kindness and consideration of others was an amazing quality of you. Your honesty and humor was appreciated. I considered knowing you and having the privledge to support you as your Nurse. I most appreciated your motivation and determination to fight and live. You were a reason to wake up everyday And helped me to believe no matter what there was an end to everyday and tomorrow I can try again. You gave life to other asmuch as I know you wanted to live. Thank you to your MOM Debra for the love she had for you and for supporting me during those yards times we had coordinating to get you that care management you needed. I love that little "monster puppy"you finally got. He would chew on my toes when I came to do RN HomeVisits. I will hold your spirit with me to provide me comfort and strength. Your words of humor will be remembered to help me laugh. Someday, if I ever have the chances....you will make that trip to DC with me. We will share your video with all those politicians and fight for healthcare and Dialysis patients and everyone will have the chance To feel the strength and power you radiatedon others. Miss you forever you "Silly" "stubborn" "Hotrod" . 🤗🤗🤗🤗 Kerri Hines, RN, CNN
