

Helen Mae Bergeron

October 31, 1918 - December 30, 2009

Mrs. Helen Mae (McIrvin) Bergeron, age 91, died December 30, 2009 in Battle Ground, WA. She was born October 31, 1918 in Vancouver, WA. Helen was born at home to Floyd and Daisy (Butts)McIrvin. She graduated from Union High School in 1936 and attended Vancouver Business College. Helen worked as a secretary/bookkeeper at Fred Meyer and the C C Stores in Vancouver, WA. During WWII she worked in the shipyards, afterwards she worked at The Bonneville Power Administration. In 1951 Helen married Murry Bergeron and worked as a bookkeeper for the family business until she retired in 1985. Her hobbies included gardening, painting and she enjoyed cooking for family events and holidays. Helen is survived by daughter, Linda Hennessy of Moses Lake, WA; son, Wayne Bergeron (Teresa) of Battle Ground, WA; three grandchildren; and one great-grandchild on the way. She is also survived by her sister, Doris Winter of Vancouver, WA; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband of 54 years, Murry Bergeron, in 2005. Our family would also like to thank Paul and Elizabeth Craciun for their wonderful care of Helen in her final years.

“ I was so lucky to have Helen as my Mother-in-Law. She was always so supportive and taught me so much. I will miss our visits.
