“ I remember the last time I saw you was in June 2015 at an after tax season luncheon. I was sitting across from you and Mamie. I think the conversation was about a memorable moment during tax season to share. I didn't see you much before to get to know you but on this day, you, Mamie and I busted up laughing so hard. You were serious and funny, too. You lived, loved, and laughed out loud on earth! May you live, love, and laugh out loud eternally!

“ Pam and Michael, so sorry for your loss. I have so many great memories of Hank as a medic mentor and friend. He is the one that finally pushed Sandi and I to go out on a date. Michael you probably remember the practical jokes we used to play on each other. Great memories and he will be missed. Please contact me if you need anything. Kevin

“ I remember one day I came into the office and went in to say hello to Henry in his office. He was busy and just waved at me. I started to leave and he said, "That was so rude of me!" He then stopped what he was doing and gave me a wonderful hug - I had told him before that you can never get too many hugs in this life. The last time I saw him was about two weeks ago here at my kiosk, he and Pam came in to get some meds and he was walking. He said hello and gave me another wonderful hug. My last memory is of that wonderful hug. How can life be any more wonderful. Many thanks Lord bless and keep you, Henry and may you Rest In Eternal Peace. Judy Albrecht

“ Pam, I am so sorry to hear of Hank's passing. I've known him basically all my life, at least it seems that way. On several occasions Hank would pick me up from school. He and Bondo-Man were assigned Lori duty. It consisted of picking me up and delivering me home safely. As far as I was concerned, I had my own personal chauffeurs. Who knows, perhaps when they received "the call" they'd flip a coin to see which one was the lucky one that evening. Regardless, he'd always be wearing a smile. Whether it was helping with the Company Picnic or talking it up at PIR, he always made it fun for me. So many, many memories do I have of Hank. He was a good man and he will be missed.
