

Hisa F. Rasmusson

December 7, 1929 - November 17, 2024

On Sunday, November 17th, 2024, at the age of 94, Hisa Rasmusson passed away peacefully in her home in Vancouver, WA.

The oldest of nine children, Hisa was born in 1929 and raised in Hakodate, Japan. Hisa met and married the love of her life, Leonard Edick, while he was serving in the U.S. Air Force stationed at Misawa Airbase, in Honshu, Japan. Hisa and Leonard moved to the US and raised their three children in Plymouth, Michigan. Hisa enjoyed a career as a loving mother and homemaker and later worked in a retail store. She was fortunate during her life for her many good friends and good neighbors at work and in her neighborhood. Hisa was talented in the creative arts and enjoyed canning vegetables from her garden, sewing clothing, making quilts and playing with her grandchildren. Her greatest joy came from spending time with her family. Hisa was preceded in death by both husbands, Leonard Edick and Melvin Rasmusson. Hisa enjoyed retirement with Mel in Northern Michigan and Florida. Hisa moved from her home in Michigan to be near her family in Vancouver after Melvin's passing.

She is survived by her beloved children, John Edick, of Plymouth, Michigan; Kiyoko (David) Julyk of Vancouver, Washington; and Darin Miles Edick, of Plymouth, Michigan; also by beloved grandchildren, Noah Julyk of Northville, Michigan; and Madeline Julyk, of Portland, Oregon. Her endless kindnesses and loving attention will be sorely missed.
