January 1, 1967 - April 6, 2023

Hoy Kern Lakoy

February 11th, 1967 - April 6th 2023

Hoy was born to a military family in Battambang, Cambodia. He was a Cambodian refugee who settled in the United States (North Carolina, September 12th, 1979).

Hoy later re-settled in Seattle, Washington where he received his education.

On October 20th, 1996, Hoy met his wife, Sipa in Vancouver, Washington. Where he settled and built his family there.

Hoy left behind his wife Sipa, his son Haimkiry, his daughter Hailey.

Hoy has 2 siblings: Hayn Lakoy and Kathna Lakoy.

Hoy was a great father, great husband, great uncle, great brother and great friend. He will be greatly missed, he came a long way and brought so much joy to this world, his family and friends around him!

Thank you for being part of our live.

Hoy's service will be held on,

“ Q: How did you meet Hoy?

A: Our sons started hanging out in school several years ago. We had the opportunity to chat with Hoy on several occasions throughout the years as the boys got together. So friendly and thoughtful... always offering to assist with various projects in our home remodel process. Great conversationalist... excellent role model for all the boys in the friend group... was obvious what a good father he was, thanking God for the type of friends that his son had met says a lot about him
