

Ilene Elizabeth Scovil

December 20, 1919 - November 29, 2012

ILENE SCOVIL December 1919- November 2012 ~ A beautiful life well lived. ~ Ilene Elizabeth Scovil, 92, passed away peacefully on Nov. 29, 2012. She was born December 20, 1919 to Claude and Bertha Phillips in Hand County SD; the third child of 16 children. Many cherished memories resulted from helping on the farm and caring for her younger siblings. Following her graduation from St. Lawrence High School in 1937, Ilene married Irwin P. Scovil in 1939. Soon thereafter, due to drought and the Great Depression they moved to the Portland-Vancouver area where they raised their family for the remainder of their lives. During various times of her life Ilene enjoyed employment as a "Rosie the Riveter" at the Vancouver Shipyards while her husband Irwin served during WWII. Hillsboro Birdseye Cannery, Rogue Valley Hospital and Sears were also organizations that enjoyed her dedication and leadership. Ilene's hobbies included painting, crocheting and reading, as well as preparing huge breakfasts for her grandchildren and other family members and friends; also her famous potato salad was served at all family gatherings. Ilene was a lifelong church member, most recently attending New Heights Church. Her strong faith sustained her throughout her life. Her greatest accomplishment and joy resulted from being a homemaker, wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Ilene is survived by three of her four children, Marlene Krout (Jim), Ed Scovil (Sandy), and Kay Wanless (Jim); 10 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; nine siblings; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Irwin; their youngest daughter, Sonya; and six siblings. Services will be held Dec. 8, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. at the Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Vancouver WA. Donations can be made to New Heights Church, 7913 NE 58th Ave., Vancouver, WA. 98665.
