

Ina L. Tichenor

September 6, 1939 - January 23, 2026

INA L. TICHENOR

Ina passed away peacefully on Friday, January 23, 2026 at 86 years old in Las Vegas Nevada.

She was born in Miami, Florida to Harvey and Thelma Pifer on September 6, 1939. Ina grew up in Battle Ground, WA amongst her large extended family and 4 siblings. She attended Meadow Glade Elementary, and Columbia Adventist Academy in Battle Ground and later Pacific Union College in Angwin, CA.

After moving away and marrying, she returned to Clark County in 1976 where she sold real estate for nearly 50 years. She spent her career as a manager/broker for various real estate companies in Clark County. She later partnered with her sister Caroline Hansen for the remaining 15 years of her career, retiring from Legions Realty in Battle Ground in 2019. Ina was an active member of Lewis River Rotary Club for over 20 years, and played piano and organ at Orchards Seventh Day Adventist Church, along with many other churches and denominations around the county.

Upon retiring, Ina moved to Las Vegas to be close to her daughter Angela, and “Be warm.”

There, she was active in her local Rotary and Aqua Size clubs in Sun City, NV. She was an avid reader, and enjoyed traveling, and gardening. Those who knew her were impressed with her expertise, wit and humor right up until the end of her life with us.

She is survived by her sons James Linford of St. George UT, and Theron Karrick of Hillsboro OR; daughters Angela Hammond of Las Vegas, NV, and Pamela Tichenor of Geneva Switzerland; granddaughter Mindy Green of Chicago IL, grandson Petros Dandalis of Geneva Switzerland; sister Suzanne Meyer of Spokane WA; along with her many nieces, nephews, and cousins, daughters/sons-in-law and friends.
