“ I met Iris at The Loyal Order of the Moose. I remember how sweet and friendly and sincere she was. I sat down with her and Willy and truly enjoyed getting to know both of them.

She gave me a CD she had recorded. Her voice was beautiful, her yodeling was pure joy!

I will miss her genuine laugh and that wonderful smile.

She was a great lady and I am very happy to have been her friend.

Sending my heartfelt condolences to the Weise Family.

“ I was never fortunate enough to be able to spend a lot of time with Iris, but the times we were together, it was obvious what a loving, caring person she was. Always a smile and a chuckle. I enjoyed knowing her and Willy and I have such fond memories of both.
