

Irma Grace Carr

January 14, 1925 - April 7, 2010

Irma Grace Carr of Vancouver, WA, passed away at home. Her life was making a loving home for her husband and children. And her greatest love was for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She liked crocheting, baking, and watching professional bull riding. Irma is survived by her daughter, Vicki S. Wilcox; four grandchildren, Shane, Wendy, Ryan, and Judy; and four great-grandchildren, Taylor, Dallas, Dakota, and Cheyenne. Her husband, George L. Carr of 65 years, preceded her death; as well as her son, Roger.