

Jack C. Baker

September 12, 1933 - February 6, 2025

Jack C. Baker passed away peacefully at home on Thursday, February 6th, 2025. Born on September 12, 1933, in Portland, Oregon, to Conrad and Mary Baker, Jack was the oldest of four children. He was preceded in death by his parents and youngest sister, Linda.

Jack enlisted in the US Air Force in 1951, embodying the values of integrity, service before self, and excellence in all we do. These values guided him throughout his life. Following his honorable service, Jack worked and retired as a longshoreman in Vancouver, Washington.

Jack was a man of many hobbies, including woodworking, fishing, camping, golfing, and gardening—all passions he lovingly passed on to his family. He enjoyed trips to the beach, listening to music, sharing stories of his life and family, loved his pets and being surrounded by those he loved.

Jack is survived by his wife, Lilian Baker; stepdaughters Lilian and Maria; five grandchildren; and two sisters, Connie and Kathy. He leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will cherish his memory.

In honor of Jack's life, his family and friends will remember him as a beloved husband, stepfather, grandfather, brother, and friend—his legacy of love and kindness will live on through those he touched. Rest in peace, Jack C. Baker.

Your spirit will be dearly missed.
