

Jack Lee Stutesman

April 9, 1933 - April 23, 2017

Jack Stutesman, a long time resident of Vancouver, Washington, passed away on April 23, 2017 at the age of 84. He was born in Parnell, Missouri to Eugene and Grace Stutesman, a middle child among nine children. Jack learned to play guitar in his teens and was a musician for the rest of his life. He met his wife Esther in the late 1940s and they married in 1950. They raised four children on family property known as Stutesman Road in Vancouver. Jack retired from the Burlington Northern RR where he worked as a Special Agent. After retirement, Jack and Esther were snowbirds for over 20 years, spending winters on the Colorado River in an active senior community. Jack's generosity of spirit will be remembered by all who knew him. Jack was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, sister Pauline, brothers Drexel, Harlan and Mervin, son David Stutesman and daughter Sandra Yarnell. He is survived by his daughters, Terry Clauson (Tom) and Jacqueline Loucks (Bret); brothers Darrel, Marion and Jerald and sister, Charlotte; grandchildren Andrea and Adrian Yarnell, Sterling and Weston Loucks, and Jack and William Stutesman.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:17 PM

“ My sincere condolences to the Stutesman family. The death of a loved one is never easy to endure. May the fond memories of the times you shared bring you comfort and peace while God's promise of a future resurrection, found at John 5:28 & 29, brings you hope during this difficult time. My deepest sympathy to you all.

Lora - June 08, 2017 at 12:00 AM