

Jacqueline Nancy Warner

February 17, 1934 - August 21, 2018

Jacqueline Nancy (Miller) Warner was born on February 17, 1934 in Mitchell, SD. She passed away peacefully on August 21, 2018 in Vancouver, WA; surrounded by her family. Jackie moved to Vancouver, WA in 1943 where she graduated from Vancouver High School.

She later met the love of her life, Dale Warner, and they were married on July 1, 1954. Jackie and Dale raised 4 children: Dale Phillip, Leslie Diane, Sandra Lynn and Troy Kevin. Jackie worked alongside her husband, son and many family members at Owens-Illinois glass plant.

Truly a kid at heart, Jackie enjoyed hours of playing games (indoors and out) with her children and their cousins and friends. Her love of fuchsias and hummingbirds was well known by many and always brought her delight.

Jackie is survived by her daughters, Leslie Loper and Sandra Warner; son, Troy Warner; granddaughters, Tiffany Warren and Jessica Loper-Williams; great-grandsons, Powell and Hudson; sisters, Janice Evans and Joan Hodges; brother, Gerald Miller; numerous nieces, nephews (great and great-great) and extended family members.

A Memorial Service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on Sept. 8 at 3:00 p.m.
